

The diagram consists of two overlapping rectangular boxes. The top box is light red with a thin dark red border and contains the text 'border box'. The bottom box is yellow with a thick yellow border and contains the text 'content box'. The yellow box is positioned slightly below and to the right of the red box, such that its top-left corner is inside the red box.

border box

content box